SafeFoodTest.com is committed to complying with all applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

It is the policy of SafeFoodTest.com not to discriminate against any applicant or student because of an individual's disability or perceived disability, provided the applicant/student can perform the necessary tasks related to training, assessments, tests, or examinations.

Consistent with this policy of non-discrimination, SafeFoodTest.com will provide reasonable accommodations to qualified applicants/students with a disability, as defined by the ADA, who notify SafeFoodTest.com of their need for accommodation—so long as such accommodation does not constitute undue hardship.

Registrants or examinees who believe they need an accommodation should contact SafeFoodTest.com Customer Service at info@safefoodtest.com or 562-292-0555.

SafeFoodTest.com encourages individuals with disabilities to come forward and request accommodations. Requests will be considered in a timely manner and on an individualized basis.

Upon receiving a request, a representative of SafeFoodTest.com will meet with the applicant/student to discuss limitations resulting from the disability and potential accommodations that may be provided. SafeFoodTest.com will determine feasibility based on factors including the nature and cost of the accommodation and the impact on business operations.

SafeFoodTest.com will inform the applicant/student of its decision regarding accommodations. If a request is denied, the applicant/student will be informed of their right to appeal by submitting a written statement explaining the need for the accommodation. Decisions made on appeal are final.

The ADA does not require SafeFoodTest.com to provide the best possible accommodations or personal use items (such as eyeglasses, hearing aids, or wheelchairs).

Applicants or students who have questions regarding this policy, or believe they have been discriminated against based on disability, should contact SafeFoodTest.com Customer Service at info@safefoodtest.com or 562-292-0555. All inquiries and complaints will be treated as confidential to the extent permissible by law.
